A score of Democrats have declared in our hearing, that if Wentworth joined their partitle were coming into ours, and wanted to speak for seats in time. THE PINALE OF THE SICKLES Closing of the Sault Ste Marie Canal. The telegraph brings us, on the authority of the Sault St. Marie Canal on the 15th of Septhe N. Y. Tribune, a "grand finale" of the tember, nominally for 30 or 60 days, with the in and just to all the survivors of the mixed transaction. It is to the effect that Mr. and Mrs. Sickles have been reconciled and have agred to spend the remainder of their days together as husband and wife. If true, the fact demonstrates at ence that the filling of Key, the spanus consequent upon the discovery of his wife's infidelity, the frequent melo-dramss in the court room during the trial, and the triumphal march of Sickles from his dock to his lodgings after his acquittal, were all arranged all the encouragement that the State for effect. In other words, Mr. Sickles had no house to be avenged in the first instance. The crime which his wife confessed in abominable minuteness, and which he allowed to be published from one end of the Union to the other, was in his eyes an affair in no way connected with his title of cuckold.

Yet we are bound to say that so far as Mr. and Mrs. Sickles and their immediate friends and relatives are concerned, this finishing up of the woundal and tragedy is emimently just and proper. Sickles now admits a fact which the world has all along recognized, viz: that Mr. Daniel E. Sickles was just good enough for Mrs. Teresa B. Sickles, and vice versa, and that neither was good enough for any one else. A special dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial, which we publish elsewhere, confirms the story and gives some unsavory prificulars.

POPULATION OF CHICAGO.

The compilers of the rival City Directories for the present year have inadvertently rendered an important service from their independent efforts, which we turn to account thus:

After making due allowance for the difference in orthography of names, it appears that almost forty-five per cent of the names, in Cast of the Area of the names in Cast of the Transitions, and the fore become odious, by opposing the Lecomyton frand, And Yet we are bound to say that so far as Mr. | Wise, Guthrie and Joe Lane, Washington, July 11, 1859.—The effort

A letter from Berlin, on the 21st, says a remor has been current to-day that a sudden check has taken piace in the preparations for mobilication, and that the execution of that important measure has been suspended. The rumor is founded upon two facts: First, the arrangements made on different railways for the conveyance of a number of troops have been countermanded; and, secondly, a part, of the mensummond to Berlin, for the landreshe have not received uniforms, as they were to have done, but have been paid and sent home, with orders
to hold themselves in readiness for a future day.
It was stated, it is true, that the uniforms were not ready, but that is not correct. The military store-houses contain everything necessary.

The change in the arrangements on railways is a more important fact than the interruption in the circling which can only be momentary

apeak when we say that an intimation of a dearlie, or a willingness that he should do so from Julies Bouyles at any time during the least six months would have brought the lengthy individual rejoicing into our camp long sixes. He now intends to come without an invitation, and expects to purchase his aomission by the total disruption of the Republican party in this county. We trust the day may never come when John Wentworth shall be enrolled in the Democratic party.

But party necessity and Irish influence will overcome its scrupter and reconcile it to the "fusion." We have heard it intimated that after Long John gets safely back into the bosom of the Hibernian Pennocracy, that the Jimes and Democrat are to be consolidated, and the joint concern published at Jackson Hall. It is further rumored that Sheshan is to be bought out or pitched overboard, but Snarleyow is to be included by reason of his qualifications to blackgard and falsity. Wentwort and Matteson would be well matched. One would do the bombastic tragedy, and the other baboon comedy. Let no one forbid she bans.

The Governments of the North of Germany have not yet received from Frankfort the order to mobilize their federal contingent, which belong to the 10th corps d'armse. Their concentration seems not to be so near at hand as had been announced. The troops of the Duchies of Holstein-Lauenberg, which also form a part of that corps, still remain in their garrisons in Copenhagen and the Danish Isles, where they have been since 1852. We see almost daily pass here, numerous transports of horses, bought in agricultural districts in our neighborhood, for the cavalry and artillery of Austria and other States, of the South of Germany. The district of Juttand alone has exported 16,000 horses in the last three months.

Immense quantities of salted meat have also lately been bought for the German armies. The Hamburgh contractors, who have undertaken to provide the several Federal fortresses, have been so much pressed by the demands that they have been obliged to order large quantities of salted meat from the United States of America. Our steamers, which ply regularly between our jours, and that of New York in from twelve to fourteen days, offer many facilities in that respect. The last steamer brought to us two hundred tons of salted meat, which were immediately sent to the Federal fortresses of Ulm, Rastada, and Mayence.

In the local of yesterday there is a correction to a blunder. In the same issue it says: "Thompson's famious saloon, under, and connected with the International Hotel, on Broadway, is closed." Taylor's, and not Thompson's saloon, is under and connected with the International Hotel. Thompson's saloon is several doors south of Taylor's. Massis. Enrous:—Some of your readers will doubtless think me reckless in some of my announcements respecting the weather. I admit they have reason to do so. But it is because I know that my system is founded on well known and long established principles of philosophy and science;—this gives me considence. But I am fully aware that the confidence of the public can only be established by practical success, and a subjection to the severest tests. These tests I ask. The time will come when I shall be no longer a stranger—when the confidence of the public will become, what mine is now,—when my inexperience, oversight, carelessness, or erroneous judgment will have their due weight in accounting for an occasional error,—when it will not be necessary for a man to be absolutely perfect, far beyond the common attainments of humanity, in the exercise of judgment, to insure a share of public cenfidence; and when the liability to err, from which none are exempt, will not be allowed undue weight against a new science in which he is yet a tyro. Who would argue that a mistake in addition, subtraction, multiplication or division, was an argument against the truth of the principles of mathematical science? No; there is ample reason for entire confidence in the candor of an enlightened public. Whatere is new and contrary to the universal experience of mankind is bound to vindicale its claims to credence by subjection to the most rigid and thorough tests; and these tests are sought. Let this science be ask, It will vindicate itself. Has it not already accomplished enough to interest the true friends and patrons of science—if not enough to stagger the most incredulous? Has

She was hoarded off Cape Race, and a brief summary of her news procured, which was started from St. Johns, N. F., yester-day, but only reached here this afternoon. The following is the summary of her news:

The steamship City of Washington arrived ont on the last inst.

The intelligence from the seat of war says that no fighting has occurred since the battle of battle commenced a little before 5 o'clock in the morning, not far from surface.

Just back of Castiglione rises a high range of hills, which projects a mile or thereabouts into the plain and then breaks off towards the left late a wide expunse of smaller hills, and so into the rolling surface which makes that portion of the plain. The Austrians had taken position upon these hills, platting cannou upon those mercet io Castiglione, which they could not approach, as the French army was in full force around that little village and had stationed their immense army all over the surrounding plain.

As nearly as we can now learn, the Emperor Francia Jusceph had collected here not leas than 225, 000 troops, and commanded them in person. His eyident purpose was to make a stand her.

The trial of Wm. Williams at Panama, for the mirrder of Capt. Junius Otts, of Baston, has resulted in a verdiet of homicide in the first degree.

Prom South America advices from Peru mention another revolution under the lead of Rebailon, Castello, Echinque and others. The revolution in Equador under Gen. Morrena has become quite threatening. The regular troops are going over to the insurgents, and the defeat of the government was considered certain.

Guaraqui was still blockaded by the Peruvian fieet.

The United States frigates Merrimac and Sasanac were at Callao. The Medical Survey held in the case of Com. John C. Long, fing officer of the Pacific Squadron, has resulted in his being condemned. He will return home immediately, and will probably be a passenger on the frigate Saranac to Panama.

The Panama Star says that a most horrid and cold blooded murder was committed on board the train coming from Aspinwall to Panama, on the 21st. There were some 500 passengers from the Northern Light on the train, one of whom, named Wm. Williams, was rather internated. When near Matachin Williams went out on the platform and kicked one of the brakesmen, merely for fun, as he says. Another of the passengers, Capt. Junius Quia, attempted to reason, with him for so doing, stating that such conduct was likely to invoive the passengers in difficulty.

Another of the passengers, Capt. Junius Quia, attempted to reason, with him for so doing, stating that such conduct was likely to invoive the passengers in difficulty. The passenger was dire and stabbed the unfortunate Outs in the right breast, from the effects of which he died.

The passengers were disposed to lynch the nurvierse inmediately, but they were prevailed appen by the conductor, Mr. Lee, to deliver him up to the authorities on their arrival at Panama it is snow in prison awaiting trial. Williams any he was born in Westmoreland Co, Pa, but a labed in Calvell, Fraxas. He has lived several head to be a trofessional gambler. Captain Ois is from the conting of the Eigh, bri war-looting of the army has not yet been reduced.

A number of political prisoners have been tried by court-martial and senteuced to death, but in all cases the Government has commuted
the pusishment to imprisonment or banishment
from the country.
This cement policy on the part of the Execusive has done much to increase its popularity.
There is some prospect of the army being employed in reducing the Indians of the Araucaman fearliory, and the press generally approves of the project, but as yet the government has jot officially announced its projects in regard to the matter. Congress was to meet on the 1st of Jane, and the message of the President, Montt, was looked forward to with great interest.
